

• CODE OF CONDUCT

All participants of the School of Polish Language and Culture will:

- Show respect for the rights, property and safety of themselves and others.
- Exhibit behavior that avoids all forms of intimidation, harassment, racism and discrimination.
- Treat School property and the property of others with a reasonable standard of care.
- Avoid any form of disruptive behavior that interrupts the learning climate of the School, such as intoxication with alcohol or drugs.

The consequences of non-compliance will reflect the severity of misbehavior and may include such actions as a verbal warning, a letter sent to the student's university/foundation and/or expulsion from the School.
